Lamar Dodd, Head of the Department of Art at the University of Georgia, will speak at The Cleveland Museum of Art on Friday February 5 at 8:15 p.m. The title of his lecture is MONUMENTS, DESIGN AND COMPARISONS. On Sunday afternoon he will speak again on ART AND LIFE IN RUSSIA AND THE FAR EAST.

Dodd studied at Georgia School of Technology and the Art Students League in New York. He was the recipient of a grant from the National Institute of Arts and Letters. He has written numerous articles on art subjects and won many prizes and honors in competition. Dodd has had a number of one-man shows and his work is represented in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and other museums.

The lecture will be held in the auditorium of the Museum and is open free to the public.
